Vacancies given in this advertisement are indicative. No change in the data already registered by the candidate in the online application form is possible. A candidate belonging to SC/ST/OBC category, who is selected on the same standard as applied to General category candidates will be treated as own merit candidates. Department of Personnel and Training vide O.M. No. 36011/1/98-Estt. (Res) dated 1-7-1998 clarifies that only such SC/ST/OBC candidates who are selected on the same standard as applied to general candidates shall not be adjusted against reserved vacancies. In other words, when a relaxed standard is applied in selecting an SC/ST/OBC candidate, for example in the age limit, experience qualification, permitted number of chances in examination, extended zone of consideration larger than what is provided for general category candidates etc., the SC/ST/OBC candidates are to be counted against reserved vacancies. Such candidates would be deemed as unavailable for consideration against unreserved vacancies. Own merit candidates of reserved category will be adjusted against the vacancies of unreserved category and will be given provisional allotment first treating them notionally as reserved category candidates. Please note that such a candidate will not be adjusted against a reserved post. However his/her provisional allotment shall be done by treating him/her as if he/she is a reserved category candidate.

Merely securing combined scores higher than the last allotted unreserved category candidate does not entitle a reserved category candidate for provisional allotment under unreserved category. Even though the candidate had not availed any relaxation applicable for reserved category, such candidate will be required to obtain a minimum score in each test and a minimum total score prescribed for unreserved category candidate for the online test and combined score higher than last allotted unreserved category candidate.

In the event of two or more candidates having obtained the same score, merit order is decided as per date of birth (the candidate senior in age is placed before/ above the candidate junior in age), as per the prevailing practice.

Issuance of offer of appointment including terms and conditions, formalities for verification, joining etc. is solely the decision of IPPB and shall be final and binding. A reserve list to the extent of approximately 10 percent of the vacancies under each category may be kept, subject to the availability of candidates. This does not guarantee recruitment by IPPB. However, if no vacancy is furnished by IPPB owing to exigencies or otherwise during the validity period, the candidates under the reserve list will not be considered. The reserve list will expire automatically on 31.03.2018 without any notice. Candidates who are not in the reserve list will not be considered for any further vacancies at IPPB for 2017-18.
